Midlands Collegiate Athletic Conference

Article I – Name

The name of the organization is the Midlands Collegiate Athletic Conference (MCAC).

Article II – Objectives

The main objective of the Conference is to promote the development of athletic programs as an integral part of the educational offerings of member institutions by means of democratic participation at the conference level. The objective is accomplished through functioning committees composed of representatives of member institutions. The primary criteria for membership in the Conference is an institutional philosophy which supports intercollegiate athletics as an integral part of the total educational program; a program through which physical, mental, social, emotional, moral, and professional growth is fostered in student athletes.

To achieve this objective, Conference members pursue the following goals:

1. Ensure intercollegiate athletics is an integral part of each institution's educational offerings and under the control of those responsible for the administration of the institution.
2. Maintain the highest ethical standards through commitment to the principle of self-reporting.
3. Engage in the competition with other institutions having similar academic and athletic philosophies and policies.
4. To promote academic achievement, sportsmanship, and high ethical standards among the member institutions and participating administrators, coaches, and student athletes of the conference.

Article III – Membership and Affiliation

The members of this Conference are colleges in the states of Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, and Oklahoma which offer a minimum of four years of academic work, awards the bachelor's degree, are active members of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) and are accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Member institutions have compatible purposes and histories as private, liberal arts, institution of high learning.

The Conference sponsors the following sports:

Women: Volleyball, Soccer, Cross Country, Basketball, Softball, Track, and Golf

Men: Soccer, Cross Country, Basketball, Baseball, Track, and Golf

It is recommended that Conference institutions compete yearly in 3 of these 4 women's sports (Volleyball, Soccer, Basketball, and Softball) and all 3 of these men's sports (Soccer, Basketball, and Baseball). It is expected that institutions will continue to offer the sports programs which were in place when the institution entered the conference. Institutions wishing to drop a sport should provide a minimum of two years notice.

Institutions seeking to become Conference members may be considered for membership subject to review and inspections by the Conference Board of Directors and a favorable two-thirds vote of the Board of Presidents. Any school applying for membership in the MCAC must include a non-refundable $500 application fee. Membership may be canceled for cause by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Presidents.

Conference dues are determined by the Board of Presidents.
